This ones for the kids who are still in school, And you wanna be tough so you break the rules Life is boring, your family's a mess, Get out of the house you think its best Get new boots and you crop your hair, Pretty soon, you'll be nowhere Feels alright when you live for now, And a buck buys a stiff drink anyhow
Feel like a pebble on the beach, When you see things outside your reach People come and people go, Too many times you're left alone
Job to job and drink to drink, There ain't enough time left to think Smoke to smoke, lay to lay, One hangover for everyday

[Chorus]

{Alcoholics Anonymous [3x] Alcoholics are anonymous}

You're older now and you look real mean, And your face is creased and not too clean Wanna be young make it last forever, But clockwork thrills won't make it better The ocean you swim has gotten too deep, Your blood is cold, you can't get no sleep Mouth is dry when you feel the hate, This is a nightmare you'll never escape
