How many times do I have to fall for you to realize that you only want Entertainment with my feelings don't be so confident cause your not the only one oh boy don't be a hater your just a faker but your so convincing you got Me all crazy up so I go along with this game or would it end up all in flames
Oh boy your so addictive
Just a game you play to get some attention
But your charms won't get me Cause I don't play along with your ways it's not right to be this fake
It's just a game at the end you lose anyways

Try to seduce me with your cute face Can't stay away from your creative compliments
You make a girl feel so amazing but I'm that easy To be your doll and you the king of me and still go look
For more
Oh boy your so addictive
Just a game you play to get some attention
But your face won't seduce me Cause I don't play along with your ways it's not right to be this fake
It's just a game at the end you lose anyways
Oh oh oh yea it's just a game oh oh you lose anyways

Tell me a lie tell the truth
I don't know how to respond anymore
Keep on going but you say the same I'm done with this game just back out and Give it a break
Walk away that all you ever done
Why don't you stay and face what you made As time go's on along with your age I Know now that you only wanted to play play play Only play never a mate just a fake I leave you now
In your own game

So tell me yea tell me how many times do I have to fall for you
You only want to play it's just a game so addictive can't stay away

But you lose anyway
