I can smell
I can smell your breath from here
Cut you down
Let the words crawl from your mouth

Try this on
We'll call it new age apathy
Push you down
Cuz it's the new recipe

All the kids found out what's missing
It's so hard to try to be different
And I don't know what it'll add up to be
Moses split the sea with the wink of an eye
There's a whole lot of people that don't know why
I know we're all gonna die
So let's believe in something we can't see

Sniffing dope
Can lead to massive atrophy
Interpretation
Of one's own apocrypha
Baby's sick
Let's fondle one another
Smash it up
Let's mock one another

All the kids found out what's missing

It's so hard to try to be different
And I don't know what it'll add up to be
Moses split the sea with the wink of an eye
There's a whole lot of people that don't know why
I know we're all gonna die
So let's believe in something we can't see

Hey God can you hear me?
I'd like to try the recipe
Hey God can you hear me?
I'd like to try the recipe

All the kids found out what's missing

It's so hard to try to be different
And I don't know what it'll add up to be
Moses split the sea with the wink of an eye
There's a whole lot of people that don't know why
So let's believe in something we can't see

It all ends with a little luck
