Have you seen the writing on the screen
There will be a time for us, keep watching it

306 freakin' standin' now keep watching it
I never knew you were so beautiful

We are running, we are hiding
In the shadows from the demons that are coming in night
We are dreaming and are finding
That the circuits inside are sequential, we're sequential
We're sequential

The circuit has a switch, it's hard to be a witch
I think I'm gonna start a little fire

306 freakin' standin' now keep watching it

The circuit has a switch, it's hard to be a witch
I think I'm gonna start a little fire

In the shadows from the demons that are coming in
night
We are dreaming and are finding
That the circuits inside are sequential, we're sequential
We're sequential

We are running, we are hiding
In the shadows from the demons that are coming in
night
We are dreaming and are finding
That the circuits inside are sequential, we're sequential
We're sequential
- The circuit has a switch
We're sequential
- The circuit has a switch
We're sequential

The circuit has a switch, it's hard to be a witch
I think I'm gonna start a little fire
