The precious time that they had left was down to forty-five
He knew that he could say to Beth that it would take a while
She was sleeping in an office beneath a store
Broken by compliance-agent packet four-o-nine
He was starting to believe that he was paranoid
How could something so beautiful be a humanoid?
Meeting in the rubble, piling back since back in '39
Looking for a way to make it sure he didn't blow her mind

I'm not gonna
Datascroller
You evil redeemers dwell here
You're getting nowhere

I'm not gonna
Datascroller
You evil redeemers dwell here
You're getting nowhere

You're standing around her sentence in the story
Do they really know how it feels to be that lonely?
Do they really know how it feels to be that lonely?

I'm not gonna
Datascroller
You evil redeemers dwell here
You're getting nowhere
