Typing keyboards in sync
Absorbed by the screens
An empire of phones that ring
Opened windows let me in

You know I don't belong here
You know I don't belong here
You know I don't belong here
You know I don't belong here

I like to dress up in costumes
Sit behind your desk
And so silently I'll hide
Until I begin to bite, because

You know I don't belong here
You know I don't belong here
You know I don't belong here
You know I don't belong here

I am the bee
In your office
I am the bee
In your office

Come on try to catch me
Come on try to haunt me
Come on try to stalk me
Come on, try

You face me with a broom
The phone doesn't understand
That you'll always miss the shot

You'll get caught inside my plot

I am the bee
In your office
I am the bee
In your office

You know I'll bite

And I like to get beaten
You know I'll bite
And I'll get beaten up

Come on try to catch me
Come on try to haunt me
Come on try to f*ck me
Come on try

Let them be embracing you!

Let them be embracing you!

I am the bee
In your office
I am the bee
In your office
I am the bee
In your office
The bee
In your office
