In my mind you'll find a galaxy
Even when I'm in my room alone
My head is spinning in a world of fantasy
Looking for some place that I can call home
The moon's so high the sky looms over
Shooting stars fly intermittently
Starlight, starbright
Wishing on you tonight
I'm living in a room for everyone
(Living in a room for everyone)
I'm finding my space under the sun
(Finding my space under the sun)
Oh, I'm living in a room for everyone, yeah
(Living in a room for everyone)
And I can no longer run

Universe reversing back in time
Black hole sun I will not fall
Infinite possibility
If I can only break down this fourth wall
Saturn's overdue, you do return
Cause I just can't wait to get back home
Cause there's love, there's truth
So help me find you
There's joy and there's peace
But firstly I gotta find me
Trying so hard to figure it out
What this world's about
And find my space under the sun
No, I can, I can no longer run
Oh, I can find my space under sun
