I gaze in wonder upon creation
Existence amazes me with it's divine manifestation
The clockwork of reality woven by time
These complexities have frozen my mind

Sands that fall through glasses cosmological
Land to create the pyramids of numinous vibrancy
Balanced atop these ever heightening designs
Are interlocking synchronized molecular phenomenon's
The conscious vibrations transfer

(Chorus)

The fabric of existence forever guides me
Infinity is elusive as it's serene hand sets me free

Endless patterns returning to consequence Is it me or is destiny the truth behind the-

Sands that fall through glasses cosmological
Land to create the pyramids of numinous vibrancy
Balanced atop these ever heightening designs
Are interlocking synchronized molecular
phenomenon's
The conscious vibrations transverselInner

Veracity aligned with all being The eyes of the cosmos seen through the forefront of eternity

Stand back and witness the concrete nature of the erratic
This is the multitudinous, we are the pieces, the machine will run without us
Will we find our ebb in the tide
