Morning is a new beginning
Morning is a healing light
Morning is a gift from heaven
It comes so slow but fast as light

It comes again
It comes so slow

Afternoon the ships come sailing
Afternoon which chariots fly
Afternoon my fragile body
Wondering when

The moon comes sailing by
It comes again
It comes so slow but fast as light

Love the whole world

Evening from freedom journey
Evening feast well my friend
Sleep with me, there be no other
I'll give you hope tomorrow comes

Wondering when
The moon comes sailing by
It comes again slow but fast as light

Love the whole world
Wake up, wake up
Take your bed and rise
It's no surprise
Love the whole world
