Put on your cap and your coat come on, come on, it's time to go.
Bundle up 'cause don't you know that outside it's pouring down snow?
Wrap that big old scarf around your pretty little neck.
Put on your boots and don't forget watch out for that ice hiding in the cracks of the pavement.
Hey baby! Bundle up tight!
Tis the season to catch a cold and die.
Make sure that you stay warm don't go out in the cold no more then you have to or you'll get sick for sure.
And if you do catch the flu or just a sneeze you can count on me to bring you soup or let you wipe your nose on my sleeve
