My favorite color of the year has to be Mahogany and
My favorite thing to do of the year is drink a drink and sing karoake with you

In the bar
In the car
When you think you think that I'm not listening oh

And when you go you leave a trail
A trail of ham and coca cola
And when you go you leave me frail
As though I had the chance to kill ya

My only heart has filled me in regards to say goodbye Leave you behind and
My only brain has led me to believe and think the things
That I shouldn't think

About you
About me too
About you

You change me
When you think you think that I'm not listening no

And when I watch you drive away
I write down all I shouldn't say
You'll never be a friend of ours
I'll make you half as far
