We want to go to see Tokyo, Tokyo!
We have no money for a plane.
We want to go to see Tokyo, Tokyo!
I have ten bucks to my name.
Oh the red lights they entice me every time,
And their foreign faces are speaking to my mind.
We have to settle for Chicago, Chicago!
We'll leave just as soon as I'm ready.
We'll have to settle for Chicago, Chicago!
No questions, no names in the city.
Oh the open highways are calling out my name,
And the brighter lights will put me in my place.
What you teach us
It will breach us
From our earthly ways.
And what you show us
Will compose
Our never-ending praise!
I'm just another girl with a guitar!
I have nothing new to say.
I'm just another girl with a cheap car!
I have ten bucks to my name.
What will you do with your money there honey?
What will you do with your mouth?
What will you do with your money there honey?
What will you do to get out of here?
