When you call my name,
I will be there by your side
Even if you're far away,
Oh I'd still be there
Looking at the stars
I make a wish every night
Hoping they will let you stay just one more day

When I hear your breathing
I can read your feelings
If you stay, we can find away
Now that love will make the weather
if we stay together
You and me, only way to be

If you leave me,
there will be no sun in the sky.
And my life will turn to gray
Out in the rain
Tell me if you stay or go I'll try to be strong

Even if you go or stay
I'll always be there

When I hear your breathing
I can read your feelings
If you stay, we can find away
Now that love will make the weather
if we stay together
You and me, only way to be

Lalalalala, lalalalala, Lalalalala, lalalala
Lalalalala, lalalalala, Lalalalala, lalalala

When I hear you breathing,
I can read your feelings
If you stay, we can findaway
Now that love will make the weather
A~f we stay together
You and me, all the way to be
