He gave me his number, I promised to call
just to get over you I'm trying so hard, working all day
just to get over you
Looking back at my life seems like I've always said that I love you I love you
Looking back at my life
seems like I've always known that I love you I love you

The sunny days never end
But I'm inside all day long, singing my song about you

When morning comes I will feel this a brand new beginning This feeling is real, I've found a new love a new beginning
It's alright and I know
I'm still young, nothing worries me
oh no no
It's alright and I know
I'm still young, nothing worries me
oh no no
