

Artery "Control"

Visit "Control" on MotoLyrics.com

Completely out of existence
Totally out of control
Our spirits are floating with no boundaries
Healing monumental catastrophes after all

A world significantly affected
By a high degree of uncertainty
A vivid hopeful illusion
Shall bring a positive solution

Artificial experience, plastic fights
What's the purpose of your journey tonight
Totally out of control, completely out of sight

Now don't worry
Everything's all right
Out of existence
Out of control
