Please don't leave me alone
I need your love to be found
Let the water keep spreading the sound
Through the fields to a higher ground

Take my blinders away, don't you tell me
Which way to sway are you happy with what You've done 'till today, through the years 'till today?
No time limits, no tears
No minutes, no hours, no fears
No time limits, no tears

I could be your umbrella in the rainy weather
Or fake it so your life gets better and bitter
I could be your remote control forever
Discover the nothing, investigate a dilemma

No time limits, no tears
No minutes, no hours, no fears
No time limits, no tears

Please don't leave me alone
I need your love to be found
Let the water keep spreading the sound
Through the fields to a higher ground

Can you help where you were born
What's your culture, who's your Lord
The language you speak, the songs you sing
Your color and length, your weakness and strength?
Can you help where you were born
What's your culture, who's your Lord

Please don't leave me alone
I need your love to be found
Let the water keep spreading the sound
Through the fields to a higher ground

Please don't leave me alone
I need your love to be found
Let the water keep spreading the sound
Through the fields to a higher ground
