I've been driving for hours now
I never once thought to turn around
I'll drive as long as it takes
To see your darling face
You are the one I've searched for
The one I beg for more

Big hearts and teen smarts can make you do things you'll regret
But the time I spent with you I'll never forget
You made me feel some sort of extraordinary
The thought of weeks without you just seems scary

Say it like you mean it and I'll believe it
I can see it in your eyes, girl, how you're feeling
Just take my hand and never let go
That's how I'll know

You've got me, but do I have you?
I wanna hear you tell me that I do
You've got me, but do I have you?
I wanna hear you tell me that I do
So run away with me girl, and never look back.
Just run away with me girl.
Just take my hand and never let go
And that's now I'll know.

It's the little things you say and do
That make me want to be with you
It's the way you dance and hold me tight
It's the way you kiss and say goodnight
It just makes me feel like everything's alright
It just makes me feel like everything's alright

Say it like you mean it and I'll believe it
I can see it in your eyes, girl, how you're feeling
Just take my hand and never let go
That's how I'll know
