Why can't you just accept me? (accept me)
For who I wanna be
Why can't you just accept me?(accept me)
For who I am

A call from the last time
I saw you standing there
A feeling that you don't belong
Right now it's all I know
Right now it's all I know

Why can't you just accept me? (accept me)
For who I wanna be
Why can't you just accept me?(accept me)
For who I am

Was it fucking worth it

To be an individual in a process of
Identical uniforms
I watch the streams of conformity
Alive with the purpose of unity
Awaken a new day from the ashes
Of our souls
