

As Good As Dead "The Cost"

Visit "The Cost" on MotoLyrics.com

You spit on what I love and embrace all that I hate, your self satisfying ridicule is more than I can take I once stood in silence, I now stand in defiance, like the ghosts of a thousand wars no man can hide this Words were spoke and lines were crossed, but you went to far with no regard for the cost!
Your masculinity only hides your insecurities, so afraid to be yourself, just be yourself
went to far, with no regard for the cost!
