Anger is an emotion that's of ten portrayed,
It's pain, it's pleasure, all rolled into one

You sparked my hatred, you triggered my rage
Now you'll pay the price for what you have done
You think this is all a game
Well, it's not
It's the furthest fucking thing

I used to be filled with life, but now I'm dead inside
The promises you used to make, now mean nothing x2

I used to be a person, with dignity, dignity!
You ripped, and you clawed and destroyed everything!
How was I supposed to know that you'd betray me
Well, it's not like you'd do the decent thing
I swear to god how did I not see this coming

I used to be filled with life, but now I'm dead inside
The promises you used to make, now mean nothing x3

I will outlast
This nightmare
That you've created from your deception x4

You put it forward, and then you take it all back x4

Your completely unfaithful and shield your life with lies Even when the chips are down, your nowhere to be found
You hide behind a mask of treachery and deceit
And never again will I fall for it!

I used to be filled with life, but now I'm dead inside
The promises you used to make, now mean nothing x2
