Words and Music by Twila Paris

I said I belonged to You

But in a secret room, I kept a secret list

I said, "Anything for You"

"Anything but this, anything but this"

You knew it all along

You knew it very well

You knew the sturdy walls I hid behind

Were nothing but a prison cell

Chorus:

I am not afraid anymore

You have opened all the windows

Opened all the doors

I am not afraid anymore

I feel the wind of freedom like I never did before

The light is filling up the corners

Dancing on the floor

I am not afraid anymore

You have always been the same

I ran away from You

I ran away from You

Every time You called my name

I tried to hide the truth

I tried to hide the truth

You knew it all along

You knew it very well

You knew the more I covered up my heart

The more I didn't know myself

Chorus

Bridge:

No room for fear

No room, no room

No room for fear

Perfect love is living here

Chorus
