Are you
Upset over all of this?
Or are you
Just playing dead adding up the math?

I can blink my eyes
In a sad sadistic fashion
In the hopes it'd make you move
In the hopes it would make you breathe

It's how disaster
Makes me feel
All I can think to do
Is stare and say

"It's okay
Just one more day"
Spent tending ruins
'Cuz of you

One more connection
Cut off by affection
One more useless night
Spent in this life

Lick your lips wet
Try to forget
Jump in headfirst
Who cares if it hurts?

One light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd do

One light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd do

It's how disaster
Makes me smile

The thought strikes as nice
Once in a while

One more connection
Cut off by affection
One tank short on gas
One bullet built to crash

One light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd do

One light flashing
Over guessing
Not for the life in you
I don't know what I'd do

These broken lungs
Have little air left, if some
The cause and effect
Is simple as a car wreck

One light flashing
Over guessing

If not for the life, then this thought of you
It's a stupid thing to think that I won't lose
When all I want is this
To be more of the friends that sometimes kiss
