Baptized in angst by the creatures in my head
I'll be honest this time
I swear
Chosen, picked and polished
Their selection in this air
I'll be honest this time
I'll be fair

It's been plucked from you
Your choice to choose now
Let's honor this time
Here
Taken, not to be consumed
The winds of change carry your perfume
Here

Baptized in angst by the creatures in my head
I'll be honest this time
I swear
Chosen, picked and polished
Their selection in this air
I'll be honest this time
I'll be fair
I swear
