This is life
This is life as
As a consequence
This apathy is murderous
Hope is dead
Buried by regret
I love for nothing
And die here for even less
This is the path we've chosen
Our mind and our future left to rot
These lives are worth nothing
Our lives worth nothing
Fuck
As we watch our dreams turn into dust
Into dust
On these cold streets beneath this hollow corpse of a life
They walk in shadows and they're feeding us our lives
We are the walking dead
Haunted by the ghost of unanswered dreams
We are the flesh and blood of a lost generation
They're deceased and forgotten
The voiceless and consumed
We're buried and broken
And we're rising again
So this is life
And words are worthless
We've clawed our way back
You can't destroy this Cause we've got nothing left to lose
These hate filled hearts keep burning
We push against the grain
And we won't turn back
Onto the teeth
Born from the shadows
Burning for revenge
Revenge
We're burning for revenge
