Stars are fallin' down
When I see you around
The sun is smilin' at me
The moon is winkin' at me
I can't control my feeling
Everybody starin' at me
My mom is worried bout' me
But no one can stop me from lovin' you.

(Ayam khaba)

Stars are fallin' down
When I see you around
The sun is smilin' at me
The moon is winkin' at me
I can't control my feeling (feeling)
Everybody starin' at me
My mom is worried bout' me
But nobody can stop me from lovin' you.

(Ayam khaba)

I called her phone
But she's out of her home
BABY why don't you pick up your phone
Your heart's so cold
Just now I know
I miss you much when you'r gone

It's just startin'
But why it's like endin'
I want my love to be known

You keep on lying
Not understanding
I want my feelings to be known

But today why my heart don't wanna sing for you
What I want is a love (a love)
Baby you are the apple of my eye

Don't wanna miss you every single minute

(Ayam khaba)

It was a lonely mornin'
When I was lost in dreamin'
I find myself screamin'
Cuz' she was leavin' me
I found ma body shakin'
When it's cold in the mornin'
The coldness is penetratin'
Cuz' it's like somethin' (somethin')
How could I forget all the moment you spent with me
gal
You gave me a kiss and it was just a dream (just a

How could I forget all the moment you spent with me

How could I forget all the memories
