I need to break your heart
Minutes before we part
I need to spoil the punch line
Seconds before you start

Burn my daylight
Take the sun down
Since there's noone
To take me off your hook

I am a judas kiss
Pretending to be a bliss
I am a wasted eyesight
Looking into the light

Burn my daylight
Take the sun down
Since there's noone
To take me off your hook

Tag me with your
Utter outcome
What I hold tight
Time will tell
Who is right

See my endeavours
If they could only make up for these lies
Hunt them as treasures
If they could only make up for these lies

Burn my daylight
Take the sun down
Since there's noone
To take me off your hook
