Honey you're my favourite I wonder do you feel the same honey you're delicious I wonder so I taste the same well I'm an old romantic sitting here clutching my bleeding heart if I'm not good enough then I've had enough let's make this fast who cares I'll find my fish I'm colourful I get so nervous I stutter stutter I am so clumsy I fumble stumble I'm not some handsome knight in shining armour I'm colourful, I'm colourful well honey you're the reason for this poet-inspired love affair honey this is treason the king is gone Rapunzel let down your hair
You lift me up take me higher higher you fill me up with desire.
