Trace my face while it's a happy face
When my smile fades I wanna
Remember this day
Passion killed by the comfort of time
I'm sorry if this makes you cry, but I
Have to speak my mind

Suck the colours from my eyes
When they lose their sparkle and
Forget to shine
Remember all the times you turned me down
I'm sorry if this hurts your heart but
Where's the spark, from the start?

Don't stop, don't stop,
Nothing lasts forever soon we will be sober
So let's laugh, talk, tickle and taste
Till the star fall down

Embrace my reflection for a little while
For if I am to love I must try love myself
Cuddle with a cold corpse like frame
I'm sorry if my view of matrimony
Seems obscure, where's the fuel?

Don't stop, don't stop,
Nothing lasts forever soon we will be
Sober, illuminated by the blood red sigh
Let's rather lament on this starlight event

Dance, dance, dance naked under starlight
There's something about this glow
That flows just right
Let's make tonight last forget about the past

So let's laugh, talk, tickle and taste
Till the star fall down
The stars fall down
Don't stop, don't stop,
Nothing lasts forever soon we will be
Sober, illuminated by the blood red sigh

Let's fantasise before the real world comes Crashing and colliding like lightning's angry temperament
Bubbling teenage love time will soon be up

Don't stop, don't stop,
Nothing lasts forever soon we will be sober
Trace my face while it's a happy face
When my smile fades and I'm old and grey
All I'll have are these moments to retrace
