You lied, it hurt
But i stayed observed
Though i knew, it was over
Don't wanna how
Don't wanna know when
And how many times you did it again
You don't need to know about the tears that i cried
How many times

You were all i ever wanted
Might be the reason why you disappeared
You were everything i needed
But i won't shed a tear
Unless you down down down on your knees knees begging baby
Please please please bring me back
I wanna see you down down down on your knees knees begging baby
Please please please bring me back

Don't wanna know how
Don't wanna know when
And how many times you did it again
You don't need to know about the tears that i cried
How many times

You were all i ever wanted
Might be the reason why you disappeared
You were everything i needed
But i won't shed a tear
Unless you down down down on your knees knees begging baby
Please please please bring me back
I wanna see you down down down on your knees knees begging baby
Please please please bring me back

Didn't you know
You were all i ever wanted
Might be the reason why you disappeared
You were everything i needed
But i won't shed a tear
Unless you down down down on your knees knees begging baby
Please please please bring me back
I wanna see you down down down on your knees knees begging baby
Please please please bring me back
