I feel alive every time I look into your eyes

And I've burning in your atmosphere like light to flies

And I can tell with eyes wide open

Every time your in the open

I'm calling bullshit that you've worked you way up into my dreams

Your the focal point everything that comes from me

Yeah I can tell with eyes wide open

Every time your in the open

I struggle to keep up with you

Who ever knew?

Are you surprised that they called that abuse?

I guess it comes with attraction to you

I struggle to keep up with you

Who ever knew?

I'm not surprised that the rumors are true

I guess it comes with attraction to you

Your persona's was like a blanket on that these cold autumn nights

But your emotions flex like rubber and your jaded inside

I should know better than to trust you going

Out on Fridays to a place unspoken

I'm pathetic, apathetic, that's according to you

But people talk, word travels fast and your kind of a whore

I should know better than to trust you going

Out on Fridays to a place unspoken

I struggle to keep up with you

Who ever knew?

Are you surprised that they called that abuse?

I guess it comes with attraction to you

I struggle to keep up with you

Who ever knew?

I'm not surprised that the rumors are true
I guess it comes with attraction to you

I for one am not impressed
By your simple display of intelligence
If you're really that smart
Why do you have a broken heart?

I for one am not impressed
By your simple display of intelligence
If I'm really that smart
Why am I the one with the broken damn heart?

I struggle to keep up with you
Who ever knew?
Are you surprised that they called that abuse?
I guess it comes with attraction to you

(Congratu-fucking-lations on achieving your dreams
I thank God each day they've got nothing to do with me
I kept my mouth shut you fucked all my peers
Last song of 09 so happy fucking new years) [x2]
I struggle to keep up with you
Who ever knew?
Are you surprised that they called that abuse?
I guess it comes with attraction to you
I struggle to keep up with you
Who ever knew?
I'm not surprised that the rumors are true
I guess it comes with attraction to you
