I've fallen so far, I feel it inside.
It's swelling up, it's swelling up.
The look in your eyes, a look of such calm
You're testing me, taking hold of me.
I'll follow you tonight. We'll follow through tonight.
I'm losing my faith, can't feel it inside.
I'm so alone, I'm so alone.
The hope I once had. You stole it from me.
There's nothing left, what did you do to me?
I'll follow you tonight. We'll follow through tonight.
How am I supposed to feel? When you're lying beside of me?
I'm standing all alone. I'm dying on my own.
Tell me. When you're in my dreams...
Is it the angel who greets me as I fall asleep?
Why don't you show me? When I reach the light,
Is it the angel? Or an angel in disguise?
There's nothing left, what did you do to me?
I'll follow you tonight. We'll follow through tonight.
How am I supposed to feel? When you're lying beside
of me?
I'm standing all alone. I'm dying on my own.
Tell me. When you're in my dreams...
Is it the angel who greets me as I fall asleep?
Why don't you show me? When I reach the light,
Is it the angel? Or an angel in disguise?
