Time goes by, we're getting older, good times and Bad passing by before my eyes. We have learned so Much about each other but after all those years, do I Really know myself? Forever in my mind, forever in my Heart. I will always be there for you. Take my hand and I'll help you through. We'll never grow apart, always in My heart! Now I've learned to appreciate more than just Getting loaded in the weekends. It's time I follow my Dreams instead of living a lie, walking around in circles.

Forever in my life, forever in my heart. I'll be there if you Need my help. Just like I needed yours sometimes. I'll be
There if you need my help. Just like I needed yours.
