My mind receive and ancient call,
I'm the choosen soul of all times
This horrid nightmare starts to fall,
A bitter fate for us begins

Prepare your mind to know the truth,
Forget all of your sacred creeds
Soon you'll see the lords on high,
Emerging from the depths of time

Now you'll understand some things,
Some mysteries, the cause of life
Occult inside the human mind,
Controlled by an ancient breed

They were damned to eternal sleep,
By the archetypal gods
But their minds are still with us,
Waiting for the upcoming fight

Resurrection, the time has come
Tribulation, inside your soul
Resurrection, of the ancient lords
Liberation, from thir curse

The premigenies will fight the universe,
Some centuries before the lost the war
Now they are prepared for the final battle,
Soon they will rise from where they were damned

I see the sky, the lords revenge
From the sea, Cthulhu emerge

I can't explain what feel,
I see things that I never saw before
Reality and fantasy are the same,
My mind can't resist it, help me.
