VERSE1

Hear the thunder, changing the earth,
Splitting the face of the ground.
Oh, to the old world, welcome the new,
See where our future is bound.
Demons may scream, for their lives,
But you cannot defend them!

CHORUS

Hell deceivers, death dealers, we are the Future!
Hell deceivers, death dealers, we are the Future...
Warriors!

VERSE 2

Man's lost horizon's burnt to the bone,
Onward the battle horn sounds.
The Lord of the living is knocked from his throne,
As hell claws it's way from the ground!
Demons may scream, for their lives,

But you cannot defend them!

CHORUS

Hell deceivers, death dealers, we are the Future!
Hell deceivers, death dealers, we are the Future...
Warriors!

VERSE 3

Warlords of battle, streets lost in blood,
Tormented remains of the past.
Forsaken they fight for survival,
Onward through life they are cast!
Demons may scream, beg for their lives,
But you cannot defend them!

CHORUS

Hell deceivers, death dealers, we are the Future!
Hell deceivers, death dealers, we are the FUTURE...
WARRIORS!
