She traps a velvet moth between her harmless hands,
And builds an atrium to perch on her nightstand.
She lays to watch her fly, attracted toward the light,
She?s all mine.

It?s now another day in search of anything,
She?ll take advantage of any human being.
She loves to watch me fly, attracted toward the light,
She?s all mine, if she?d only leave the light on.

Chorus:

She breathes under my velvet wings,
If she only left the light on.
She brings all that she used to be,
If she only left the light on.

I swear it?s hard to tell if I?m the only one,
I found a photograph next to the atrium,
It?s faded black and white, he?s holdin? her so tight,
She?s all mine, if she only left the light on.

Chorus

All the powder on your wings makes me feel I?m
everything,
And every single evening I love you with the way I sing.
(Repeat verse 2x)

I sing. I sing. I sing. (She only left the light on.)
I sing. I sing. (She only left the light on.)

(Apaga la luz) I sing. (She only left the light on.) (Repeat
8x)

Apaga la luz.
