I blame you for being what you are
I blame you for waht i'm going through right now
I'm sorry if these words don't come out right
I'm sorry now that i don't have anyone to blame @ yeah i did everything i could just to make say i would Do anything for you
Anfdi want to say you're mine
But you came to fine but you threw it all away
I open my eyes while dreaming
And my vision of you start fading
I pray that you wouldn't stop believing
Wait up coz my horizons are changing
Bridge:
So you think the fact bringsmeans so much to me
That you come to make me see that things are gonna be allright
Never thought you would've realize
Part of me is confusing our lives
With the feelings i've got from you
