The Thought so crippling
Agonizing and unsettling
To Die alone in a palace of broken bones
The price you pay when you sell your heart and soul

I dream of silhouettes
They drain my arms and bite my neck

Dead and cold across the threshold
My darling disaster
Welcome to my hell

Rest assured I'll rest in peace
This longing will never cease

I dream of silhouettes
They drain my arms and bite my neck

Dead and cold across the threshold
My darling disaster
Welcome to my hell

Dead and cold across the threshold
My darling disaster
Welcome to my (hell)

Dead and cold across the threshold

My darling

Just close your eyes (just close your eyes)
Just close your eyes (forever)
Just close your eyes
