English Translation:

Ever wonder how many people in this world.
Walking around a few billion. I have never met anyone.
Today's change the world that I'm familiar.
The world does not know it. To have a bright smile.

Although the wait is very long. Over the past days I feel lonely
But today, with her body back together, it just was not enough.

The stars from the sky, dazzling deserted me. How many people on the planet.
But I never do. I have not seen her.
She was a princess, I find. And the angel that I love.
Everything is there. Just being together is just as much at ease.

I will ask that she not be dreaded.
I have to keep it a beautiful night and day.
If I do not think I will go anywhere.
There are far to ask her how she will remember me forever.

The stars from the sky, dazzling deserted me. How
many people on the planet.
But I never do. I have not seen her.
She was a princess, I find. And the angel that I love.
Everything is there. She is now just as much at ease.
