English Translation:

I always happy when you live beside me.
Even if so long time ago, or so far away
We have to follow our dreams.
The love is real even if we can't see it.

Love is our surrounding. you can feel it every time.
everyday, you still be my friends, and we are walking together.
if friendships are seen by heart
and use so much time to find it you must keep it as long as you can many people is not a real friends they only come to joy when you happy and leave when you sad.

i don't care if it so long time but friendships never old

every memories are so great friends are happy together and sad together.
we don't leave each other, we also help if friends have a problem

time is past away but Pals never old.
we will follow our dreams and never leave each other!.
