English Translation:

One day we were hurt by love
And were torn apart
Why is it I feel it's just me
Who hurts so bad

Lots of Memories of you
Come over and over again
But still no love remains
We dreamed that love would hold our future
But now I have to face and accept this failure

Love is not always everything
Love is not you and me or both of us
Love is not happiness in sometimes
Love is not hope when we have to say good bye
Love doesn't take us further from the start
The sorrow still chained to my heart

Love once brought the time of my life
I never stop making it better
Just the fear of love never wait for any mistake
Since the lonely nights of love gone
Desperately recalling but
No return to those happy times
We dreamed that love would hold our future
But now I have to face and accept this failure

Love is not always everything
Love is not you and me or both of us
Love is not happiness in sometimes
Love is not hope when we have to say good bye
Love doesn't take us further from the start
The sorrow still chained to my heart

The dream of love builds our tomorrow
Waken up by tears
I know life is driven by only love
But how can I go on

Love is not always everything
Love is not you and me or both of us
Love is not happiness in sometimes
Love is not hope when we have to say good bye
Love doesn't take us further from the start
Love gave us a lot but finally take it away
Love doesn't take us further from the start
The sorrow still chained to my heart
