All the things that someday governed me

Now are lost, far away from me

All the people that someday I loved

Now are dead inside of my head

Now Iâ€™m looking for others way

To keep my feets on the earth

Enyone is at my side

I buried all my past

The ways looks like swamps

They could be hard

Under the shades of the nighth

Iâ€™ll find the light

The full moon will show me

The way to the end

Under a signus fractus

Iâ€™ll never go back again.

I will kill the torment

My life was a tragedy

Lux in tenebris lucet

The way is dark

The full moon will show me

The way to the end

Under a signus fractus

IÂ´ll never go back again.

I will kill the torment

I will kill the pain

I will taste the sadness

I will breath again

I will feel the darkness

I will find my fate

Fool moon is my guide

I Will live again

I will trust in myself

This is my own hell

I will find the way

To arrive to the end

All the past was buried

I will find my fate

I will never go back

Never go back again

Lux in tenebris lucet

The way is dark.

The full moon will show me

The way to the end

Under a signus fractus

IÂ´ll never go back again.
