Spooked out in this little house,
Did anyone else just see that thing move?
Recall the things I had before,
I feel as if there's someone else in the room

And I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
The creepshow, oh it's gonna rise

And lost soul, you're making me tip-toe,
I'm a scaredy-cat with any kind of sound
And oh no, I sound like a weirdo,
Talking about all these spirits hanging around

And I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
The creepshow, oh it's gonna rise

And freaky horror movie lighting,
All the hairs on the back of my neck are standing up
And please don't open that basement door,
The lights go and now you know you're fucked

And I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
I know one day that creepshow is gonna rise
The creepshow, oh it's gonna rise
