And whoa man, just got back from out of town,
Met a girl, she made me sweat, she took me up on all my bets,
I couldn't keep up and whoa man, I remember my momma said,
Find a girl who's pure as snow, just settle down and praise the lord
She never met my mom

I was at the bar, she caught me staring at her dress,
She smiled and bought me drinks and you can imagine what came next

I like the ones who, I like the ones who, I like the ones
I like the ones who like to show me around
Do what I like, they do what I like to, they do what I like,
They do all of the things that I like to do

And whoa man, you shoulda seen the way she danced,
Type of girl to keep you up all night,
Type of body to make your jeans get tight
Well she got on that stage and sang a song everyone knows,
She moved in time, whispered in my ear,
"Do you wanna take off my clothes?" ...yes

I like the ones who, I like the ones who, I like the ones
I like the ones who like to show me around
Do what I like, they do what I like to, do what I like,
They do all of the things that I like to do

We jumped in her car, we drove through the rain
Found ourselves in the alley that became a lovers' lane We fell in love, but only for a night, I said, "should I get your number?"
She said, "no we'll be alright, if we're supposed to meet again, we will,
But for now baby, so long, goodnight"

I like the ones who, I like the ones who, I like the ones
I like the ones who like to show me, woo
Do what I like, they do what I like to, do what I like

They do all of the things that I like to do

I like the ones who, I like the ones who, I like the ones
I like the ones who like to show me around
Do what I like, they do what I like to, do what I like
They do all of the things that I like to do
