Lets drive with no destination, we'll dance like kids in the summer rain Lets leave our problems behind, we'll live life in the slow lane
Lets carve our names in tree trunks, We'll count the stars in the southwest sky
With a kiss under the bridge, oh baby we will never die

So come take my hand and lets run, run, run

We're always getting older, but our dreams will never fall apart
No matter the changes, we will all stay young at heart
We've always had the magic, all we needed was a kick
start

Lets sing a song of romance, we'll go skip rocks out on the lake
We'll have no concept of time, and no concept of heartache Lets run the streets of downtown, wait for the big sun to arrive
And we won't regret all the things that make us feel alive

We're always getting older, but our dreams will never
fall apart
We've always had the magic, all we needed was a kick

Gotta do what you love, gotta mean what you say We'll watch the little worries in this big world fade away Because the future is the future and the past is the past We're on the run now, all I got is the foot on the gas

We're always getting older, but our dreams will never
fall apart
We've always had the magic, all we needed was a kick
No matter the changes, we will all stay young at heart
