She's not the girl you know, she's not the girl you know.
She's living in her room, she's living in her room.
But I never thought you were this way,
You've never seen her photographs.
She was sick, but she made you feel so good.

Make me feel like that, make me feel the way she does.
Make me feel like that, make me feel the way she does.

She wants to change her life, she wants to change her life.
You've got a big success, you've got a big success.
But I never thought you were this way,
You've never seen her photographs.

She was sick, but she made you feel so good.

Make me feel like that, make me feel the way she does.
Make me feel like that, make me feel the way she does.

She never loose control, she never loose control.
She's living in her room, she's living in her room.
But I never thought you were this way,
You've never seen her photographs.
She was sick, but she made you feel so good.

Make me feel like that, make me feel the way she does.
Make me feel like that, make me feel the way she does.
