There goes a friend
There goes a girl
Here comes the world
Here comes my lover
The spine of my life
I say hello
And she says nothing wearing sunshine in her eyes
I'm lost again
I'm blinded and sunburned

My remedy
Surgery
You cover my atrocities
And I know that's not easy

Remedy
Surgery
A killer of the color blue
And I know that you know too

There goes the bell
She serves a plate
I'm always late
An invitation
But she's alone
I'm never home
But she just keeps it warm and ready 'until I'm there
I win again
My healer, believer
