With the last chord a show away
And the streets are filled with light
Your words echo through the day
But the light shines through at night

Take a bite out ofÂ
What makes life taste better
Feel the anger build inside

You've given your fake smile away
And shown your true colourÂ
With every breath that you take
Someone is watching you

Emotions are running high
We scream things we never speak
I thought you would have your sayÂ
About the thingsÂ
We choose to leave behindÂ

Take a bite out ofÂ
What make life taste better
Feel the anger build inside

You've given your fake smile away
And shown your true colourÂ
With every breath that you take
Someone is watching you

Can't you see that you're wrongÂ
Can't you see that you're wrong

You've given your fake smile away
And shown your true colourÂ
With every breath that you take
Someone is watching you

Given your fake smile away
Shown your true colourÂ
With every breath that you take
Someone is watching you
