

Autumn's Grey Solace "Over The Ocean"

Rushing inside my dreams
Like the moon's dancing light
Washing away my days
Like a cast of grey skies
Never come awake
I fled, I fled

Breathe in the salty air
Free from a web of despair
Tonight I'll sit by the sea
Heavens will rain in my eyes

Sinking into my bed
Hoping to be left behind
Drowning inside my head
Floating in an ocean's grave
Never come awake
I fled, I fled

Breathe in the salty air
Free from a web of despair
Tonight I'll sit by the sea
Heavens will rain in my eyes
