The Journey

When I watch myself I wonder what went wrong
I said it all before but nothing ever changes no more
I wish to be alone where noone know my name
Some say that hope makes them keep on living
I don't want to be the same as I was before
At the end of this journey in my life
Time has gone too fast, I haven't found a way
Searching frequently, but everything seems to fade
I'm at a turning point, the end of this road
I have never cared what people say that I should do

I don't want to be afraid anymore
How could it be this way I'm feeling now
I don't want to be the same as I was before
At the end of this journey in my life

I'm still out here by myself, finding my own way back
To the place I thought was home
I still see the sickness of it all, the burned faces
The mutilated children, I couldn't do a thing
If someone can hear this, don't call for help
It is already for too late

I don't want to be afraid anymore
How could it be this way I'm feeling now
I don't want to be the same as I was before
At the end of this journey in my life

I don't want to be afraid anymore
How could it be this way I'm feeling now
I don't want to be the same as I was before
At the end of this journey in my life
