Poor you alone again it seems
Know you are lonely as can be
Wish you could see its all meant to be
So you could finally feel free
You see your blessing as a curse
You think what's better is what's worse
Why are you crying now

[Chorus]
Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it here and now
Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it now

Poor you finding searching is your way
Know you wonder where you will ever stay
Wish you would really question the way
So you could embrace what's here today
You destroy your dreams it seems
Your fantasy's survive reality
Why are you crying now

[Chorus]
Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it here and now
Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it now

[Chorus]
Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it here and now

Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it now

[Chorus]

Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
Better do it here and now
Why are you crying now
Where did you get lost and how
When will you learn how to smile
